1 PROBLEM 1

Follow instructions on the course website for what you have to provide for each problem.

2 PROBLEM 2

This is an example of how you should use citations: This template is based on the official ACM proceedings template [1]. For more information on how to use the template, please refer to <https://www.acm.org/binaries/content/assets/publications/consolidated-tex-template/acmart.pdf>. Pay close attention to the Latex comments in this file that starts with "TODO."
